

World Elder Abuse Awareness Day

CONFERENCE

SAVE THE DATE - Monday 17 June 2019

Aged Rights Advocacy Service

Proudly presents its 14th WEAAD Conference

'Elder Abuse: Building Trust'

This year's World Elder Abuse Awareness Day (WEAAD) Conference program has been developed with the theme around 'Elder Abuse: Building Trust'. ARAS' vision is 'a community in which all older people are valued and respected'. The conference theme 'building trust' includes our values of 'integrity, inclusiveness, justice and respect'. It is about sharing and collaboration of supports and resources from governments, services and organisations so that we can continue to uphold the rights of older South Australians and once again 'building trust' in our communities.

Confirmed and invited speakers:

The Hon Stephen Wade – Minister for Health & Wellbeing

Hon. Dr Kay Patterson - Australian Human Rights Commission

Janet Anderson - Aged Care Quality and Safety Commissioner

Jeanette Walters - Director of Intergovernment Relations and Ageing, Office for Ageing Well

Dr Kate Barnett – Director, Stand Out Report

Russell Westacott & Deidre Timms - Co-Chairs of Elder Abuse Action Australia (EAAA)

South Australia Police – Family and Domestic Violence Section of the Public Protection Branch

Jenni Caruso – Lecturer Adelaide University

Stamford Grand Adelaide, Moseley Square, Glenelg

For more information contact: Doris Gioffre, Conference Convenor
Phone (08) 8232 5377 or email: dorisg@agedrights.asn.au

To register: <https://www.trybooking.com/book/event?eid=464095>

Register NOW for early bird registrations to the 18th March, 2019